Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-7, drawn to an apparatus, classified in class 118, subclass 429.
- II. Claims 8-10, drawn to a method, classified in class 427, subclass 434.6.
- III. Claim 11, drawn to a coating composition, classified in class 106, subclass 403.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as claimed can be used for a materially different process such as dyeing textiles for decoration purposes.

Inventions I and III are deemed independent and distinct inventions as the invention of Group I is related to coating nylon webbing while the invention of Group III is related to a paint composition. The paint composition of Group III can be used for other purposes other than coating nylon such as decorating walls, floors, furniture, or even toys. The apparatus of Group I specifies making a nylon product while the coating composition of Group II does not have to be used for making a nylon product.

Inventions III and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product or paint composition can be used for a different purpose other than coating nylon such as decorating an automobile.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Edward Dutkiewicz on 12/10/04 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made as Mr. Dutkiewicz requested a written restriction.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Laura Edwards whose telephone number is (571) 272-1227. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday.
